Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor delivers legal services on an integrated and global basis, with more than 750 attorneys in 27 cities on two continents. Cozen O'Connor's Institutional Response Group delivers holistic responses to institutions confronting sexual and gender-based harassment and violence, child abuse, safety and security issues, and other forms of misconduct.

Led by Gina Maisto Smith and Leslie Gomez, the Institutional Response Group members are nationally recognized for their knowledge and experience related to child sexual and physical abuse, child protection, and child protective services laws. They frequently advise clients in evaluating and responding to current or historical allegations of abuse in a legally informed and open and transparent manner designed to promote child safety and welfare. Their experience includes several high-profile external investigations for clients including colleges and universities, religious institutions, health care providers, daycare centers, summer camps, and K-12 schools. They conduct training and prevention programs on the identification and prevention of child abuse; provide child protection audits, advise on protection planning related to background checks, professional boundaries, physical plant, and mandatory reporter policies; coordinate internal investigations with child protective services and local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies; and conduct child abuse investigations.

WELCOME

FROM THE CHAIR

On behalf of the HEPNet Board of Directors, I am excited to welcome you to HEPNet 2021: Back to the Future! We are so glad to have you back with us this year. A special welcome to new attendees. Please know that we are a welcoming and FUN bunch of people! Sadly we are coming together virtually again this year, but I promise we will still offer a good time chock full of networking and new ideas!

I feel a strong connection with this year's conference theme. As a child of the 1980's I can't help but conjure Marty McFly's adventures with a certain nostalgia. Movie memories aside, I lately find myself reflecting on both the past and the future simultaneously. We aren't going back to what was before, but what valuable wisdom can we bring with us into the future of youth protection? Also, what new innovations are emerging that we can explore together for youth's safety and well-being?

With this in mind, we hope that throughout this conference you will have an opportunity to re-ground yourselves in the fundamentals of youth protection, strengthen your youth protection toolkit, and also ponder what's ahead for you, your institution and for the field at large.

A special note of gratitude to our sponsors- thank you for believing in our mission! Your support helps us in countless ways, and I hope you know how much your contributions mean to us.

A heartfelt thanks goes to our fearless conference committee who agreed to take on the hard work of planning another virtual conference. They have put together a fantastic program! As Doc Brown said, "Roads? Where we're going, we don't need roads." Strap on your seat belts and enjoy this year's ride!

Yours in gratitude,

Caroline Shelton
